Tour 4

Black Hawk's Grave, Domingueq-Escalante Monuments, Springville Museum of Art

Sponsored by the Maple Mountain Chapter
(morning tour only)

Tour 4 sponsored by the Maple Mountain Chapter travels 30 miles to Spring Lake just south of Payson, Utah, to visit Black Hawk's grave. There you will learn about Ute Indian Chief Black Hawk and the Black Hawk Wars, one of the deadliest engagements in Utah's history between the pioneers and the native American Indians.

For many years, Black Hawk's remains were displayed at a Provo Museum. Fortunately, this Indian warrior was respectfully interned at this sacred location.

You will then visit one of two Domingueq-Escalante Expedition Monuments, one in Payson and the other at the mouth of Spanish Fork Canyon.

Fathers Dominguez and Escalante reached the mouth of Spanish Fork Canyon on September 23, 1776, rimmed by Yuta Timpanogotzis Indian villages. Today a white-cross marks the hill Dominguez climbed to survey the valley.

Tour 4 continues to the Springville Museum of Art. This historic landmark is filled with the skills of local artists. You will want to ponder and spend time at this location.

Tour 5

Crandal Printing Museum, Daughters of Utah Pioneers Relic Hall

Sponsored by the Timpanogos Chapter
(morning tour only)

Tour 5 sponsored by the Timpanogos Chapter travels 5 miles to Alpine, Utah to visit the Crandal Printing Museum. There you will learn about the Gutenberg Press, the English Common Press, and the Peter Smith hand Press, commonly known as the Acorn Hand Press, the same type of press that printed the Book of Mormon. Unfortunately, this tour is limited to 35 participants, due to the size of the facility.

Entrance fee is $3 per person, due at registration. Parking is limited, so you will want to carpool.

Time permitting, Tour 5 continues to the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers Relic Hall Museum to view “Only A Stone Cutter.” Stone cutter, John Rowe Moyle lost his leg during an accident; however, this did not prevent him from journeying on foot to the Salt Lake Temple where he labored as a stone cutter. He is remembered for chiseling the words “Holiness’ to the Lord, the House of the Lord.”

Tour 9

Soft Rock Building of Pleasant Grove, SUP Soft Rock Monument, Adams Dairy Farm

Sponsored by the Timpanogos Chapter
(morning and afternoon tour)

Tour 9 sponsored by the Timpanogos Chapter and hosted by National SUP, Area Vice President Dan Adams. Dan has written a research paper about Soft Rock Buildings. He will take you to see a few Soft Rock Buildings and to visit the Timpanogos Chapter Soft Rock Monument. Between 1865-1900 there were about 130 Soft Rock homes built in Pleasant Grove with only 19 historic buildings still visible.

The tour will continue to the Soft Rock Adams Dairy Barn where you will see hundreds of vintage farm tools and witness the action of the original Adams Jackson Fork. As you stand next to a 40-foot tall, 100-year-old concrete silo, Dan will tell you how they were built in the early 1900s and how they were filled with corn silage. A written history of silos is available to participants.
